Modern Chemistry Enhanced Online Edition

Chemistry is the natural science involved with elements and compounds composed of atoms, molecules and ions: their composition, structure, properties, behavior and the changes they undergo during a reaction with other substances.. In the scope of its subject, chemistry occupies an intermediate position between physics and biology. It is sometimes called the central science because it provides ...

Dynamic covalent polymer networks have long been recognized. With the initial focus on the unintended impact of dynamic covalent linkages on the viscoelasticity of commercial rubbers, efforts in modern times have transitioned into designing dynamic covalent polymer networks with unique adaptive properties.

Modern definitions are concerned with the fundamental chemical reactions common to all acids. Most acids encountered in everyday life are aqueous solutions, or can be dissolved in water, so the Arrhenius and Brønsted-Lowry definitions are the most relevant.. The Brønsted-Lowry definition is the most widely used definition; unless otherwise specified, acid-base reactions are assumed to ...
