A joke is a display of humour in which words are used within a specific and well-defined narrative structure to make people laugh and is not meant to be taken seriously. It takes the form of a story, usually with dialogue, and ends in a punch line. It is in the punch line that the audience becomes aware that the story contains a second, conflicting meaning.

For years the small country church reported only 50 people at worship, so the bishop's office took notice when it suddenly tripled to 150! To find out what they were doing right, the bishop visited one Sunday, only to find the same 50 souls in attendance. "Have you been inflating your numbers to make your congregation look good?" the bishop asked the pastor. "Not at all," the pastor said.
